

Loneragan University College
The Department of English and The Visiting Lecturers Committee announce a Public Lecture on

R. Buckminster Fuller and the Black Mountain Poets

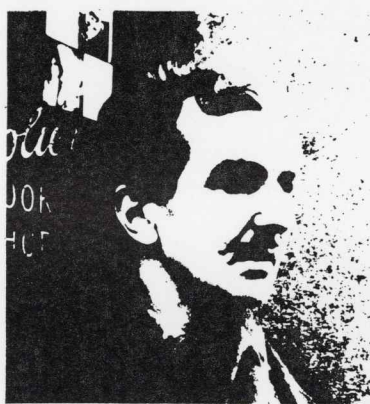

by

Dr. Hugh Kenner
Professor of English
Johns Hopkins University

Hugh Kenner has a double qualification to speak on the above topic. First, he has contributed personally to the development of Buckminster Fuller's ideas, particularly under the concept of Tensegrity. Second, he is a leading literary critic, particularly noted for his discriminating recognition of modern authors and movements. At one point in his career Buckminster Fuller was associated with Black Mountain College, from where the poetic movement of the Black Mountain poets originated.
